Reasons for Allowance

1. The following is an Examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. Claims 1-3, 6, and 26-27 have been canceled.
3. Claims 4-5, 7-10, 24-25 and 28 are considered allowable since when reading the claims the claims in light of the specification, as per, MPEP §2111.01 or Toro Co. v. White Consolidated Inc., 199 F.3d 1295, 1301, 53 USPQ2d 1065,1069 (Fed. Cir. 1999), none of the references of record alone or in combination disclose or suggest the combinations of limitations specified in the independent claims.
4. The limitations recited in independent Claims 4 and 28:
 "...obtaining the network attributes from a network having a plurality of nodes;
 obtaining the application attributes of an application;
 obtaining a user's communication interest as represented by at least one of: a user request for a content update or a user subscription to a specific data item or to a set of proximal data sources;
 forming a plurality of feature vectors, one for each of the plurality of nodes, where each single one of the plurality of feature vectors is based on the user's communication interest, network attributes, and application attributes, such that each single one of the plurality of feature vectors comprises features extracted from a plurality of different types of sources; and clustering the plurality of nodes based on the plurality of feature vectors, wherein the clustering is performed by a nested method in which one or more of said plurality of nodes are initially clustered based on a sub-set of the plurality of attributes and then re-clustered by iteratively considering additional ones of the plurality of attributes " (Emphasis added).

5. When taken in context the claims as a whole was/were not uncovered in the prior art i.e., the dependent claims are allowed as they depend upon an allowable independent claim.

6. Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance".

Examiner's Comments

7. Claim 28 currently recites: "...A computer readable storage device...", it is hereby noted by Examiner that in Applicant's Remarks presented on 17 September 2010, Applicant's stated that the computer readable storage device could be, for example, a memory, as illustrated in Figure 2 and described in paragraphs 0086-0087 of the Applicants' Specification. A computer readable storage device is clearly a tangible, non-transitory medium, which falls into at least one of the four categories of invention (e.g., machine or manufacture). As such, the Applicants submit that the subject matter recited in claims 26-28 is clearly statutory within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. §101 (see page 7 of Remarks).

Therefore, the claimed computer readable storage device recited in Claim 28 in light of specification and applicant's remarks covers solely non-transitory media which is statutory under 35 U.S.C. §101.
